The design community went to Milan for the biggest event in the industry's calendar this month. This was the perfect week for Bessa to launch a very special piece inspired in one of the most significant cultural phenomena - the great heads of Easter Island.

The BIG MOAI dining table was born. Find out more about this beautiful creation by clicking on the image above. The Milan Design Week has already finished but the celebration of Design will keep going. In this spirit, Bessa will continue releasing new pieces both on and off the most important Design events of the world. New releases are already scheduled and will include limited edition pieces and new innovative ways of working premium materials. Stay tuned!!
